

First Aid Courses

Under the Health & Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981, organisations must make First Aid provision in accordance with the HSE recommendations.

These recommendations take into account the level of risk in the activities being carried out, and the number of people involved.

To help your organisation conform with these regulations the following First Aid at work courses are available from T3UK:

- Appointed person (1-day)
- HSE First Aid at Work
- (Nominated First Aider 3-day)
- HSE First Aid at Work
- (Refresher 1-day)
- Moving & Handling (1/2-day)
- First Aid for Child Carers (2-day)
